TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1886.

HAWAIIAN LEGISLATURE. SESSION OF 1886.

Monnay, Sept. 6, 1886. NINETY-POURTH DAY.

The Assembly convened at the usual hour, and, after prayer, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Representative Brown, from the Judi ciary committee, presented the following report, signed by himself and Reps. Kauluhou, Kaunemano, Palahou and Hon. J. H. S. Martin, viz:

"The Judiciary committee, to whom was referred the bill to amend Section 247 of the Civil Code, respectfully beg leave to report that they have had said bill under consideration, and recommend that the same pass, as the amendment proposed will render the section more effective as a law. The law, as now in force, renders the section inoperative as to animals under the age of one year. The present amendment does away with that, and the law thus applied to animals of any age named in the section."

Report adopted, and ordered to third reading on the 9th instant.

Representative Hayselden, under sus pension of the rules, presented a petition from residents of Kohala, Hawaii, praying for the retention of Dr. Thompson in 5,073. office. Referred to Judiciary committee Representative Brown, from the Judiciary committee, presented a report, signed by himself and Hon. J. H. S. Martin. as follows: "The minority of the Judiciary committee, to whom was referred the bill in troduced by the Hon. S. B. Dole, entitled "An Act to prevent the borrowing of money on account of the Government without the authority of the Legislature," beg leave to report that, after due consideration, that they recommend that the bill pass, in order that all discussion upon the validity of borrowing money upon the authority of a so-called Cabinet resolu tion may be disposed of; and in order 1,265. that the one power contemplated and authorized by the Constitution shall alone give such authority." Tabled for further consideration. Representative Hayselden, from the committee on Accounts, asked for further time in which to present their report. As also Rep. Kalna, for the committee on Public Lands, etc. Requests granted. The petition presented by Mr. Flowerdew, asking redress for certain alleged losses by action of the Government, was returned to the Assembly from the committee on Public Lands, etc., the Chairman stating that the Committee were averse to dealing with the matter. On motion, the petition was placed on Representative Castle questioned the Minister of Interior (President of the Board of Health) relative to the breaking of the quarantine regulations by the Rus sian steamer Moskwa. The Minister, in answer, said that on Sunday the 5th inst., about 8 o'clock, Dr.

Brodie, the Port Physician, informed him that a steamer had been brought into the harbor contrary to the regulations of the Board of Health. The doctor, in answer to a question, said he was not called to go out to her, and did not board her until she was inside the harbor. He further said she had a clean bill of health. He (the speaker) said that did not make any difference; the regulations had been violated. The doctor said the vessel was in some sense a man-of war, and carried marines; also, the Russian Minister of Marine. He (the speaker) said it would not matter if the Emperor of Russia was on board, the regulations must be en forced. He gave a written order to the doctor for the pilot to take the vessel outside at once. In accordance with the recommendation of the doctors, every part of the vessel was fumigated with hot steam and sulphur, and all articles belonging to the Admiral and the other passengers were fumigated. He had had a report from Mr. Dayton that the process of fumigating was thorough. He felt satisfied that the Board of Health had fully carried out the regulations, considering the circumstances under which the vessel came. The action of the pilot (McIntyre) was censurable, and the Board of Health would consider that matter. Representative Castle, from the Special committee having charge of matters relating to elections and tax laws, presented the following report, signed by himself, the Attorney-General, and Reps. Dole and Wight, viz. :

"The Select committee, to which was referred a bill presented by the Hon. J. K. Kaunamano to amend Section 780 of the Civil Code; also, a resolution presented by the Hon. C. H. Dickey relative to the re-apportionment of Representatives, respectfully report as follows: Article 60 of the Constitution requires that the Legislative Assembly shall from time to time apportion the representation in the Assembly according to the population.

"Since the Constitution of 1864 there has been but one change in the represent ation: this was made by the Act of 1868, whereby Wailuku receives two members. Several measures have been considered by each successive Assembly, but no further. change has been made. In the meantime changes in population have occurred, the centers of life and business have shifted, and the disproportions in representation are now very great. This is shown clearly by the census of 1884, which also furnishes a safe and sufficient basis for a new distribution.

"That such re-apportionment ought to be made is perfectly evident. If the right to be represented in the Legislative Assembly is a valuable one-one for which the citizen feels any concern—it is clear that injustice is now done. At the present time the representation is based on the following figures: "There are now twenty-eight elective members in the Assembly; the population of the country is now about 80,574, which gives one member to every 2,878 on an average. But it is found that on this basis some districts are very much overrepresented, while others fall short of their proper allowance. The representa tion at present is as follows:

HAWAII. Hilo sends 2 members, or 1 to 3,994; population, 7,988. Puna sends 1 member; population, 944. Hamakua sends 1 member; population, Kohala sends 1 member; population,

North Kona sends 1 member ; population, 1,773. South Kona sends 1 member : population, 1.825.

Kau sends 1 member; population, 3,483. Number of members 8, or 1 to 3,124. Total population, 24,991.

Lahaina and Kaanapali sends 3 members, or 1 to 756; population, 2,269. Wailuku sends 2 members, or 1 to 2,907; population, 5,814. Makawao sends 1 member ; population, Hana sends 1 member; population, 2,814. Number of members, 7; or 1 to 2,267. Tetal population, 15,970.

Molokai and Lanai sends 2 members, or 1 to 1,307; population, 2,614. OAHU. Honolulu sends 4 members, or 1 to

MOLOKAI AND LANAI.

5,122; population, 20,487. Koolaupoko sends 1 member; population, 2,621. Koolauloa sends 1 member; population, population, 2,374. Number of members, 8; or 1 to 3,508. Total population, 28,068.

Waialua sends 1 member; population, Ewa and Waianae sends 1 member;

ISLAND OF KAUAI Waimea sends 1 member; population, 1.762. Lihue and Koloa sends 1 member; population, 3,484. Hanalei sends 1 member; population, Number of members, 3; or 1 to 2,978.

Total population, 8,935. The committee has figured on apportionments upon the basis of 2,250, 2,500, 2,750, 3,000 and 3,500 inhabitants to one Representative. The smaller figures add the order of the day for discussion on largely to the size of the Assembly; the last decreases the number considerably, making a range from 23 to 36 members on the elective side of the House. It is not thought expedient to decrease the number to any extent, and it is believed that any increase will offer no advantages compensating for the increased expense of elections, of the Assembly while in session, and would tend to make that body more unwieldy. The basis of 3,000 inhabitants to one member has been settled upon by the committee, for the reasons that that figure more than any other will leave elective districts as they now are; every interest of the country will be amply represented and protected, and the number of members in the Assembly will be nearly as at present. Upon the basis of 3,000 inhabitants to one Representative, the apportionment will be as follows:

Hilo and Puna, 3 members, or 1 to 2,979; population, 8,932.

Hamakua, 1 member; population, 3,908. Kohala, 2 members, or one to 2,535; population, 5,070. Kona, 1 member; population. 3,483. MAUI. Lahaina and Kaanapali. 1 member; population, 2,269. Wailuku, 2 members, or 1 to 2,907; population, 5,814. Makawao, 2 members, or 1 to 2,536;

Ewa and Waianae, 1 member; population, 3,484. Hanalei, 1 member; population, 3,569. For the islands the figures will be: Hawaii 8 members, or 1 to 3,174; population, 24,991. Maui 6 members, or 1 to 2,661; population, 15,970. Molokai and Lanai, 1 member; popula-
